We are always happy to talk to anyone who is concerned about their drug or alcohol use, or that of someone they know.

We welcome visitors to Spacious Places - just contact us to arrange a visit. You can also find more information on our website.

How to find us

We can be found at No 20 New Market Street - close to both Briggate and the Kirkgate Market. Look out for 'Little Tokyo'.

Do you want to stop taking drugs or alcohol?

If the answer is yes, then we at Spacious Places are here to help you

If you commit yourself to our structured programme of recovery, we can help you:

- Address your alcohol and drug addiction
- Confront other issues and challenges you are facing
 - Make positive changes in your life

Spacious Places offers a structured day treatment programme for men and women with drug and alcohol related problems. The environment is a positive one, and all the people on the programme want to see changes for the better in their lives.

Our programme includes:

- Developing relapse prevention strategies
- Life skills
- 12 step teaching
- Looking at repeat behaviour and character defects
- A meal each day

How do I get on the Spacious Places programme?

You can refer yourself to Spacious Places by contacting us using the details overleaf. Alternatively, you can be referred by a professional.

We will arrange an appointment for you with one of our staff, who will show you round Spacious Places, go through the criteria for accessing the programme, and answer any questions you might have.
